ONLY ONE MORE DAY AND THE MEETING WILL HAVE CLOSED.

TWO MORE SERVICES

Rev. Hendrick Expresses Hope of Saving Many More Souls Before
Final Benediction.

Rev. Hendrick and himself. The duets were excellent both in points of selection and interpretation, and were fully appreciated by the entire congregation.

At the beginning of his discourse last night or rather in a few words before hand, Rev. Hendrick said in substance, that he and Rev. Carter had labored three weeks here and that the meeting had been indeed a great one—but that he hoped to be able to save many more souls before the final benediction on Sunday night.

The announcement was made that regular services will be held on Sunday morning at the several churches of the city and that there would be a special service on "Consecrated Womanhood" for women only at the tent at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. At 8:15 a service for everybody.

The evangelist spoke last night of the wonderful power of the Bible as it influences the lives of men. He referred to it as a book of specific letters in which you could find the best and most wholesome advice from undisputed authority on all the problems of life and to all classes and ages of people.

There is the word of warning that has held the contemplated suicide to life, the cheering thoughts that have gladdened sad souls. Neither is the convincing evidence sufficient to convert the worst doubter omitted. Severe rebuke to the scoffer, and warning to the sinner, all these are found in this wonderful book of letters.

ALL PARTIES VERY ACTIVE

GRANDFATHER CLAUSE AND RACE
FOR GOVERNOR ATTRACT
MOST ATTENTION

DEMOCRATS CONFIDENT

The Three Parties Working Hard to Bring About a Heavy Vote
Tuesday

Oklahoma City, Okla., July 29.—Practically two features of the primary election have drawn all of the limelight—the race for Governor and the grandfather clause. Races for other State offices have been mere incidents compared with the two mentioned, and it would be difficult to determine which of the pair has secured a major portion of the attention.

The grandfather clause, submitted as an amendment to the State Constitution, is a product of the special session of the Second Legislature. As an amendment to the suffrage article, it is designed to restrict the voting rights of negroes and withhold the franchise from them unless they can comply with the educational test of being able to read and write a section of the State Constitution. The test is not made applicable to persons whose grandfathers or themselves had the right of suffrage under some form of government prior to Jan. 1, 1866, or who resided in a foreign country. There is nothing, the advocates claim, in the proposed amendment abridging the voting rights of Indians or whites. Republicans, however, construe the clause to affect Indians and ex-foreigners, as well as negroes. The question of construction is not confronting the voter on Aug 2. It is then to be adopted or rejected, and, if the former, the rule will be made immediately effective, the purpose being to apply it as a restriction at the polls in November.

Democratic Chairman Confident

Chairman Fred P. Branson of the Democratic State Executive Committee, one of the moving forces in initiating the amendment, expresses confidence of a large majority for the clause, but rather than discussing its greatness in figures, talks on the necessity of adoption. In support of its position, the committee has distributed considerable literature tending to show the effect of the negro vote and the result of an influx of negro population to Oklahoma. If there is anything to the latter proposition, credit is largely due to land agents in several sections of the State.

Secretary Linn of the State Election Board predicts the favorable majority for the clause will be 50,000 but others believe the adoption will be sustained by at least 25,000 additional. If the clause was being submitted separately, opponents might entertain some hope for its defeat, since a separate ballot is rarely voted as strong as the main issue. Constitutional amendments are adopted when they receive a majority of all the votes cast in the election. If the total primary vote reached 250,000, then the amendment would have to get more than 125,000 votes to have a majority. With the grandfather clause on a sheet by itself, it is doubtful if all the voters would put in the second ballot after voting for the State officers. This is illustrated by the first State election in September, 1907. There were 257,240 votes cast for Governor, 253,392 on adoption of the Constitution and 242,768 on the prohibition question.

MINING BOYS ENDORSE THE FRIEND OF LABOR

McAlester, Okla., July 28, 1910.

Pres Lester,

Oklahoma City:

The United Mine Workers met at Krebs today and endorsed Hon. Wm. H. Murray as a candidate for governor and his platform and public record on labor legislation. The United Mine Workers constitute the largest portion of federated labor in Oklahoma. The endorsement of Murray was full and complete and similar to the endorsement of him by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, who says that Murray has done everything for labor any sensible man ought to ask.

CENSUS RETURNS NOT COMPLETE IN PONTOTOC

The special Federal Census of 1907 gave Pontotoc county a population of 23,057, the census returns sent out from Washington yesterday estimated Pontotoc's population at 23,045 or 12 less than that of the year 1907.

There is one district however in this county on which the complete returns of which have not been received. This will doubtless give us a gain in the three last years. Less than four per cent of Pontotoc's population are negroes. Fortunate in having less than half the average negro population for this state.

Mr. Kehoe who is now auditing the accounts and records at the county Judge's office, has moved his family here from Sulphur, where they have been for some time. They have rooms at Mrs. Saffran's.

OKLAHOMA POPULATION

CENSUS RETURNS SHOW GAIN OF MORE THAN 16 PER CENT IN THREE YEARS

8.4 PER CENT ARE NEGROES

138,456 Blacks, Representing 8.4 per Cent of the Entire Population

Washington, July 29.—In view of the fact that an election is to be held in Oklahoma, August 2, with reference to a constitutional amendment bearing on suffrage, which is expected to affect principally the negro race, the Census Bureau tonight made public the completed census for Oklahoma by counties, showing the negro population in each county. The returns are complete for three enumerators' districts, two being in McCurtain County and one in Pontotoc county.

The total returns for the state, lacking these three returns which embrace less than 5,000 persons is 1,651,951 as compared with 1,414,177, according to the special census taken state of 16.8 per cent in less than three years, the 1907 census having been taken in August and the present census in June.

The total population of the Territory at present included in the state of Oklahoma in 1900 was 790,391, so that the 1910 population represents a gain of 109 per cent for ten years.

In 1907 the negroes in Oklahoma numbered 112,160 and in 1910 they numbered 138,456, an increase of 7.9 per cent. The negroes represent 8.4 per cent of the entire population of the state.

COUNTY ATTORNEY ROBERT WIMBISH REPLIES TO ROLAND

Roll, Okla., July 30, 1910.
Mr. R. C. Roland, Ada, Okla.

Dear Sir: I am informed that in yesterday afternoon's News you published a challenge to me to meet you in joint discussion at Ada next Monday evening. You well know, and knew when you published this challenge, that R. M. Roddie, John Crawford and myself have had an appointment published for two weeks to speak at the court house in Ada at this time, and that, therefore, for this reason, it would be impossible for me to accept a challenge from you.

In your challenge you arrogate to yourself the unusual, unheard of and unfair privilege of extending a challenge and at the same time dictating absolutely the terms and conditions of the discussion. This is quite a departure from the settled rules of debate.

If it will be satisfactory with the other candidates who are to speak on the same occasion on which I have advertised to speak at the court house in Ada, above referred to, I shall be glad to divide time with you, and as it is my regular appointment, I shall extend you every courtesy. If this meets with your approval, the necessary arrangements can be made for this division of time.

Respectfully,
ROBT. WIMBISH.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF OKLAHOMA

Statements have been made through the press and in other ways that Mr. J. B. Mosely owns the controlling interest of the Oklahoma Book Co., and that he was my campaign manager in the last campaign; and that I secured for the Oklahoma Book Co. an exclusive contract with the State of Oklahoma for the sale of school books in this State; and that I secured the adoption of a large number of books; and that I forced unnecessary books on the State.

I desire to say that only one of these statements is true. Mr. J. B. Mosely was my campaign manager during the last campaign. The Oklahoma Book Company is only a distributing agent employed by part of the publishers who secured contracts from the Text Book Commission, and these companies do business through the Oklahoma Book Co. Ginn & Co., the publishers who secured the largest contract from the Text Book Commission, distribute their own books from Dallas, Texas. The publishers represented by the Oklahoma Book Co., pay the Oklahoma Book Co., for distributing their books.

The retail price of all schoolbooks was fixed by the Text Book Commission and is stamped on each book sold by the Oklahoma Book Co. I am not a member of the State Text Book Commission and had nothing to do with the adoption of the text books. I have no connection with the Oklahoma Book Co. and am not interested in it directly or indirectly. This company is in no way connected with the State and has never had a contract with it. It is merely a matter of convenience for the publishers to furnish books to the children of the State.

E. D. CAMERON,
State Supt.

Thanking you in advance for your vote and any other support you may give me, I am

AWFUL PAINS FULLY DESCRIBED

A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of Awful Suffering That Cardui Finally Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Dorna A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearing down sensations, so fully described in your book.

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief, until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief and today I can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

In some instances, Cardui gives instant relief; in others, it may take a little time. But in all cases of female trouble Cardui can be depended on to be of benefit, as it is a specific remedy for women and acts in a curative way on the womanly organs.

As a general tonic for women, to build up your strength, improve your appetite, bring back rosy cheeks and make you look and feel young and happy, nothing you can find will do so much for you as Cardui.

Your druggist has it.

SYMPATHIZERS KILL TWO IN STRIKE

ONE A POLICEMAN, A SCORE HURT AND SERIOUSLY INJURED.

BANK OFFICIAL IS ARRESTED

Accused of Firing into Mob—Makes Denial of the Accusation.

New York, July 28.—Two men were shot and killed and four were dangerously wounded, one a policeman, in a riot of strike sympathizers today at the plant of the American Sugar Refining company in Williamsburg. A score of others were hurt.

The crowd of sympathizers threw bricks at the strikebreakers from the house-tops and when the non-union men started out with their trucks to deliver sugar a rush was made for the wagons. The police on the trucks returned the fire of the crowd and two rioters were shot. The dead men are Lithuanians and were not readily identified.

Several policemen were struck and by roofs. Four men, suffering from serious gun-shot wounds were taken to the Eastern district hospital.

The entire neighborhood became involved in the disturbance and the reserves from nine precincts had all they could do to cope with the trouble. It appeared from the account of by-standers that the officers did not fire into the crowd until forced to do so by the ferocity of the attacks upon them, firing into the air to intimidate the mob, and when this marn failed, directed their shots at men attacking them.

On charge of having fired one of the shots that took effect upon the mob, H. M. Morgan, cashier of the refining company, was arrested after the riot and lodged in jail. Morgan denies the accusation.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Growers.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

GOING TO A WEDDING

"Did you have a good time?" asked the bookkeeper.

The young woman stenographer dropped her heavy suitcase. Having assured herself that the manager had not yet reached the office that morning, she turned upon the bookkeeper a severe countenance.

"You are the most tactless man I know," she declared. "Did you ever hear of any one having a good time at anybody's wedding?"

The bookkeeper shook his head. "That's the point of my subtle joke," he said.

"Well, it sounded to me like an ordinary foolish question. I am a little peevish, I think, for I am trying to count up how much the wedding cost me."

"I thought you liked to spend money."

"I do, when I have some chance of getting a fair return for it. But what pleasure do I get out of this? Not any."

"First," went on the stenographer, bitterly. "I had to forfeit a day's salary for a substitute stenographer; then, in order to catch the six o'clock train I had to hire a taxicab. Next I had to say good-by to six perfectly good dollars for my railroad ticket."

"When I reached the town my thirteen-year-old nephew pushed me into a cab as if I were a bag of meal. Then he disappeared bashfully into the darkness, leaving me alone in the cab with a nice-looking young man who was going to the same place. All the romances founded on the girl and the man meeting on the way to the house party flashed through my mind and I began to think that perhaps the wedding wouldn't be such a bore, after all."

"I didn't know before that you were so dependent on a mere man for your happiness," said the bookkeeper. "You are always bragging about the good times at your club."

"A girls' club is a jolly affair in itself," explained the stenographer, "but a church social or a wedding means some foreign element—for example, an interesting man—to make it endurable."

"And this particular man?"

"His name was Smith. His wife and his small son were waiting for him at the house."

"Love's young dream blasted!" murmured the bookkeeper.

"I had one stroke of luck," said the stenographer. "The house was so full of relatives that I had to go to a neighbor's to sleep. I thought how lovely it was that I would not have to get up at seven o'clock in order to get to the office on time. They called me at six o'clock."

"After breakfast I helped make all the beds and then I sneaked off into one corner of the library and began to read a book. Unfortunately, my brother-in-law saw me and my reposeful attitude seemed to irritate him, for he asked me to get up and dust a picture frame."

"It was selfish of you to shirk—"

"Young man, don't you know that one of the greatest lessons in life is to learn one's own responsibility and let other people's alone? The caterers were there to cater; the decorator was there to decorate; the bride and the bridesmaids were in the hands of the hairdresser. I think it was nice of me not to go rushing around yelling 'Isn't there something I can do?'"

"I got even with my brother-in-law, however. All of his personal property that was downstairs I carried up, and anything I found of his upstairs I took downstairs. They will have to clean house again before he finds his things."

"Of course we had a stand-up lunch in the butler's pantry—and my suit will have to go to the cleaners."

"Two hours later the wedding march began. Then the procession came in, everybody counting four on each foot and all wishing they were well out of the whole business. Then during the ceremony there were some unostentatious tears shed. The man who wrote 'Merrily the Wedding Bells' certainly had a wonderful imagination. Next came the refreshments and the showering of rice."

"Well, this morning I crawled out at 4:30 and caught the train back to Chicago."

"But you had a visit with your relatives."

"I didn't. Besides, the trip cost me ten dollars, without counting the present."

"You could have gone to a lot of matinees for that."

The stenographer nodded. "Without anybody's being tired out or sick from overwork," she said. "I know one thing. If ever I get married I'll put a standing advertisement of it in the newspaper. That will do away with addressing and stamping invitations. Then we will walk over to the nearest minister's—"

"Hush!" warned the bookkeeper. "Get busy! Here comes the boss."

A Good Reason.

"I want to thank you," said the orator, "for the manner in which you gave attention to my remarks. Your attitude was gratifying different from the others."

"Yes," replied the auditor; "but I don't want any credit that is not due me. I have had insomnia for weeks."

Kidney disease advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptom of kidney disorder. If there is a dull pain in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the urine is dark, foul-smelling, irregular and attended with pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the statement of this Ada citizen.

Mrs. M. S. Kyser, 502 West Main St., Ada, Okla., says: "Last summer I suffered a great deal from a dull heavy ache through my back and hips. I thought it was due to a cold settling on my kidneys and that it would soon disappear. The pains gradually became more intense and other symptoms of kidney trouble set in. I at length decided to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, and procured a box. After taking a few doses I felt much better and I continued using this remedy until every symptom of my trouble had disappeared. I am glad to state that I have had no return of kidney complaint."

JUSTICE DEMANDS IT

Some Things That Will Always Be If the Negro Is Allowed to Vote.

In 1908 no negroes voted in Osage county. Today there are in Osage county between two hundred and three hundred negro voters. There are seventy-six counties in Oklahoma. If the negro vote was to increase throughout the state as it is increasing in Osage county, there would be an increase of almost 20,000 every two years. And mind you, Osage county is in no sense a negro county. It is now receiving its first negro immigrants. There are twenty counties in Oklahoma where the negro population is increasing much faster than it is in Osage county. Yet the negro vote in that white county has increased in less than two years from nothing to where it comprises more than five per cent of the entire vote. And Frank Greer says the negro question is a joke! Vote for the "Grandfather Clause" and discourage negro immigration.

Those who oppose the Grandfather Amendment and advocate negro immigration into Oklahoma should read of what transpired at Washington when the negroes heard the result of the Reno fight. When the wire bore in the news of Johnson's victory, thousands of jubilant negroes rushed into the streets which were blocked for hours. Traffic was suspended, streets cars were stopped by the mob, and white people were driven from the sidewalks. Finally negroes began to invade the white residence section, and many white ladies were dragged from their homes and into the streets by the negro rabble. At last the police came in force and dispersed the rioters, but not without great difficulty.

It was such scenes and deeds that created a demand for the disfranchisement of the negro. The Grandfather Clause is simply a child of necessity born of the exigencies of the times. It was born of the peril of negro nomination. The negroes themselves have invoked the storm. By their unbridled lust for power and their determination to rule a superior race they have driven the Caucasian to initiate the constitutional amendment which is to be voted on in August.

A prominent citizen of El Reno in discussing the Grandfather Clause said that if the negroes should come into his town until they had a majority and should elect a negro school board and negro city officials, he would not try to disfranchise the negroes—he would move away.

Such is the remedy suffered by the opponents of the Grandfather Amendment to the people of the black belt—"if you don't like negro domination, you can get out." You can abandon the oil fields and the coal fields of the East side to the negro. 'Tis true that his domination means ruin to the richest section of Oklahoma, but if you don't like a government of ignorance and incompetency, you can get out. If you object to negro school boards controlling white schools, you can get out and let the negro rule supreme.

TIPS On Choosing a Bank

Before lining up with a bank you should investigate several points in connection with it. In the first place ascertain whether or not the bank is prospering and developing along with the other lines of business of the community. If a bank's business isn't prospering something is wrong. In the second place are the officers and directors of the bank good, safe business men who deal squarely with the people? Watch out for a bank operated by tricksters or sharpers. In the third place do the directors really direct or are they merely figure heads? Look out for a bank whose directors know little or nothing about its business.

We want you to investigate this institution. We know its business is prospering and increasing right along. You know its officers and directors and we believe they are safe, honorable, business men. The directors of this bank say what shall and shall not be done. They pass upon the loans regularly and their instructions are carried out to the letter. This bank is what they make it—A Strong, Prospering, Conservative institution.

W. C. T. U. NOTES.

It is not expected that the people of a great state shall wait until the worst spots in it shall reach millennial conditions before they could enact a righteous law which was demanded by a large majority of the people.

It is not to be expected that the people of Oklahoma shall pull down her prohibition law because the sons Bellal in some places of the state demand it.

The Swedes are among the best people in the world. We get no more desirable immigrants. Recently they gave a new demonstration of their superiority by casting 1,700,000 votes for the total suppression of the liquor traffic in Sweden and only 12,500 against it. The saloon must go in Sweden.

Let the voters of Oklahoma again show their superiority by voting against resubmission, also by not voting for whiskey men for county officers.

Walters' Big Vaudeville company opening here Saturday night comes to us well recommended as they are direct from the big towns and the management guarantee a clean whole some and up to date laugh show. The comedy roles are in the hands of Mr. Lawrence Mack, a well known comedian of exceptional merit and supporting company are strong in their various parts.

STATE AND PONTOTOC COUNTY CENSUS REPORTS IN SOME MANNER TWISTED

Pontotoc County Must Have 30,000
People and of Course Ada Must
Have More than 3,000

Those who control the policies of the Associated Press are the leading newspapers men of America. The leading metropolitan papers of the nation obtain full reports of the nation's occurrences of greater importance. The principal owner of the Dallas News, Mr. Belo, is a member of an associated press. On account of his conservatism and his care with which he has conducted the press of his Dallas News, his publications have succeeded to much fame on account of the sincerity of its press publications. There has been nothing more conducive to the success of the Dallas News than the intelligence with which its old staff correspondent, Hon. W. S. Sterrett, formerly reported the Washington news. He always dealt fairly with the great Southwest, which is largely the constituency of the Dallas News. The News does not know his successor, and does not undertake to estimate whether the report of the Oklahoma census returns, published in the issue of this day, resulted through subsequence arrangement, or was the malicious consequence of a republican political action.

The staff correspondent of the Dallas News stated that the population of Pontotoc county by the 1910 census was 23,045 against the number of 23,057, the amount of the carpet bag census report of 1907.

There is no undertaking to place the responsibility of such erroneous report, except the conjecture of political trickery. The Aldrich corporate control of the East does not relish the prospect of ten Democratic congressmen from Oklahoma. When the number of census returns for Oklahoma turns a less than 2,000,000, it takes on the appearance of schulduggery.

Cause of Eczema Explained.

After years of debate medical authorities are now agreed that Eczema and other skin diseases are not seated in the blood, but are caused by myriads of microscopic animals gnawing the flesh just below the epidermis. The patient is perfectly healthy. It is only the skin that is diseased.

Hence, scientists are now agreed that you must cure the skin through the skin. The medicine must be in liquid form in order to penetrate properly. And we can say with confidence that we have the true remedy for Eczema in our store.

The instant you wash with this soothing liquid you will find the itch relieved. We positively assure you of this. Will you try a bottle (at only 25c) on our recommendation? Ask for D. D. D. Prescription. Ramsey Drug Company, West Main Street

NEWS FROM ETHEL

"Ethel must be going crazy!" exclaimed Mrs. Roxwell, who stood by the window of the breakfast room staring at a night telegram from her daughter.

"Why do you make such a strange remark, Elizabeth?" asked Ethel's Aunt Mary. "Ethel hasn't run away from school on its closing week, has she?"

"Of course not. She says she will be home today on the four o'clock train."

"Nothing crazy about that," remarked Ethel's Aunt Mary, slipping into her place at the table and wishing that her brother-in-law would make his appearance so that breakfast might be served.

"She has changed her mind," said Mrs. Roxwell. "We expected her tomorrow, you know, and she has concluded to come today instead."

"The mind," observed Ethel's Aunt Mary dietetically, "is not like a garment. We can change it without being out of it for a single moment. If a woman should be considered crazy merely because she changed her mind a good many of us would be handed over to the alienists. I must say, Elizabeth, you are very foolish thus to agitate yourself over a trifle. Ethel was coming home on Wednesday, she decides to come on Tuesday instead, and you are out of temper because you will see her 24 hours sooner than you expected. I am surprised at you, her own mother!"

"I am not!" snapped Mrs. Roxwell, irritably.

"You are not her mother?" inquired Ethel's Aunt Mary, with lifted eyebrows.

"Mary, there are times when you would vex a saint!" cried Mrs. Roxwell.

"Of course," she explained, more calmly, "I am glad that my daughter will be with me sooner than I had expected her to come, but—well, read her telegram for yourself."

Ethel's Aunt Mary adjusted her eyeglasses and read:

"I wish to say will be at home on Tuesday at four. On the train. The usual route. I changed my mind and will be at home on Tuesday instead of Wednesday. I will be there if the train is on time, otherwise will take the consequences. 45. The teachers are well. ETHEL."

Mrs. Roxwell waited with a somber brow while her sister read the telegram.

"It seems rather—er—lengthy," commented Ethel's Aunt Mary.

"Lengthy! I should say so," agreed Mrs. Roxwell, with considerable indignation. "She could have told all that was necessary in the usual ten words. And the loose construction of it! Why, that girl finishes school in another year!"

"She has a good deal to learn about the handling of the English language in that time," criticised Ethel's Aunt Mary. "Schools are not so particular as they were in our day, Elizabeth. I can't make out what she means by those figures—45."

"She probably thought the train gets in at 4:45 instead of four, and put the figures at the end instead of where they belong. See how she begins, 'I wish to say.' Naturally she wished to say something or she need not have telegraphed."

"It is doubtless the style now to take nothing for granted," suggested Ethel's Aunt Mary.

"It evidently is," assented Mrs. Roxwell. "She says she is coming on the train. There is no other way that she could come, unless she should walk."

"She may have supposed that you would expect her to come on an aeroplane," suggested Ethel's Aunt Mary, with some sarcasm. "She remarks that if the train is not on time she will have to take the consequences. What consequences? Did you ever scold her because her train was late?"

"Certainly not. She simply means that she will suffer the usual annoyance caused by the delay."

"I see. Ethel's idea of a telegram seems to be that one should leave nothing to the imagination. She says the teachers are well. Have they been ill?"

"Not that I am aware of. That sentence seems to have been thrown in as a piece of general information. I could have waited until she arrives this afternoon to be apprised of the state of the faculty's health. But here is Charles. Let us see what he thinks of his daughter's telegraphic effort."

Roxwell laughed when he read Ethel's communication.

"The little puss was determined to get the worth of her money," he explained. "It is one of those telegraph letters in which 50 words can be sent at night at the rate of ten words. When you know you are at liberty to write so many words you've no idea how difficult it is to think them up. Her figures mean that she has achieved 45 words up to that point. Then she adds that sentence about the teachers to make the even fifty."

"It is difficult to keep abreast of the times," sighed Ethel's Aunt Mary. "I had not heard about this new way of telegraphing."

"I am glad to have Ethel's higgledy-piggledy sentences explained," said Mrs. Roxwell, with a sigh of relief.

Birds Return to Nests?
Whether birds—especially migratory ones—return to the same nests year after year is a question of much interest to the naturalist. Swallows that summer in England do not winter north of Africa, but an observer at High Halden, Kent, has recorded that one returned on April 12 to a nest it occupied last year. It was recognized by a ring placed on its leg May 8, 1909. To gain a better knowledge of birds' habits, more than 2,000 British birds were last year marked with inscribed aluminum rings, and twice as many more will be similarly tagged this year.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering from Woman's Ailments.

I am a woman.
I know woman's sufferings.
I have found the cure.
I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from woman's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—yes, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or Whittish discharges, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors, or Growths; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, ear-aching, kidney, and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete ten day's treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that, if I will send you the treatment a complete trial, and if you give the treatment a complete trial, and if you experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or Whittish discharges, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors, or Growths; also pains in head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, ear-aching, kidney, and bladder troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know and will gladly tell any sufferer that this home treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Let send me your address, and the free ten day's treatment is yours, also the book. Write to-day, as you may not see this offer again. Address
